

Rally News

- * Nor'Wester got canceled.
- * Wild West on the open range.

Green Diamond Resource Company decided not to renew the road-use permits for NW stage rallies. That ends the era of forest rallies in Western Washington, except for what the Damitios can arrange for Doo Wops.

The other private land owners weren't interested in that particular use of their lands. On the other hand, State and US government managers wanted mounds of paperwork and 6-month lead times. Weyerhaeuser actually said OK, but it'd cost $2500 per mile. I don't know if that included transit roads.

Then the town of Pomeroy, in the far SE corner of the state asked for a stage rally.

The PRG people are checking out the possibilities of moving the Wild West rally to Garfield County. At 30 miles from Lewiston/Clarkston, the "basics" are there.

Your editor has a special affection for Pomeroy. Many years ago, the Evergreen State 1000 headed out of town south into the Blue Mountains. The RI reading "L AT TREE" led to the ridge running-road that gets to Clarkston in spectacular manner. The stage rally would head north, however. Great roads! -MN

* Jerry Hines says he is still accepting entries for the 2008 Winter Alcan Rally. The list hovers around 30.

* Sno-Git (TSD) by ORCA July 21, drew 14 entrants. RASC was ably represented by Dan Comden / Hans Adomeit, who placed 4th in UnLimited class with 13 points, following a 3 way tie for 1st (9 points did it). 14 controls were scored over 8 timed sections.

Which brings up an interesting problem- how to break ties. There isn't a written rule.

* Check out a new on-line magazine for local rallyists. Its part of the NWRC website.

From the west, using 520 bridge, follow instructions at W Lake Sammamish Pkwy NE exit.

From the north end, take 405 south to 124th St., exit 20, and go left on 124th (as if going to Café Veloce). Follow 124th 1.5 miles to Willows Rd NE and go right on Willows. S at signal in 2.1 miles to stay on Willows. L at signal onto Redmond Way. L after RR underpass into Redmond Center.

You may also pick up Redmond Way from the NE 85th exit 18 in Kirkland, but the traffic signals are murder going this way. Monthly meetings are the second Monday of each month. Past Members, visitors, and spectators are welcomed.

Agenda: Looks like a social meeting. Everyone is up to something that has absolutely nothing to do with rallies. Good timing, too, since September is very busy. Steve Richards reports that Ruby has been packed off to a good home.
